Let’s Learn and Grow Together

Resources are offered in response to members’ interest following the Pentecost 2020 service of repentance. They were compiled by PSUMC members Kathy McCullagh, Judy Fram, Sally Ridgeway, Michael O’Loughlin, and Rev. Melissa Hinnen.

Please contact the church office for more information.

Book Discussion: For All Who Hunger

The founding Pastor, Emily M.D. Scott of St. Lydia’s, a dinner church which many of us have visited, wrote a book, ‘For All Who Hunger’. We are having a virtual book discussion about this book. It is available online for delivery from Greenlight or Community Books.

Please email Linda Mandracchia or the church office if you are interested in reading and discussing this book. Once we have interest, the participants will choose the date for a discussion.
Join us for (extra) Ordinary Creative Expressions - Creative Writing Bible Study on Tuesdays Via Zoom Noon-1:30

The church season that follows Pentecost is often called “ordinary time.” But we are clearly living in extraordinary times. And certainly, your creative expressions are extraordinary. Please join us as we study Scriptures from the season after Pentecost and explore how your spirit interprets them through creative writing. No Bible knowledge or writing experience necessary. Feel free to drop in even if you can’t commit to every week. Open to all. Invite a friend.
